TITLE 16. BOARD OF PSYCHOLOGY

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Psychology (hereinafter "Board") is proposing to take the action described in the Informative Digest. Any person interested may present statements or arguments orally or in writing relevant to the action proposed at a hearing to be held:

Board of Psychology Meeting

Department of Consumer Affairs – El Dorado Room
1625 N Market Blvd Suite 220
Sacramento CA, 95834

Written comments, including those sent by mail, facsimile, or e-mail to the addresses listed under Contact Person in this Notice, must be received by the Board at its office no later than 5:00 p.m. on January 16, 2017, or must be received by the Board at the hearing. The Board, upon its own motion or at the instance of any interested party, may thereafter adopt the proposals substantially as described below or may modify such proposals if such modifications are sufficiently related to the original text. With the exception of technical or grammatical changes, the full text of any modified proposal will be available for 15 days prior to its adoption from the person designated in this Notice as contact person and will be mailed to those persons who submit written or oral testimony related to this proposal or who have requested notification of any changes to the proposal.

Authority and Reference: Pursuant to the authority vested by section 2930 and 2940 of the Business and Professions Code, and to implement, interpret or make specific sections 2913, 2948 and 2987 of said Code, the Board is considering changes to Division 13.1 of Title 16 of the California Code of Regulations as follows:

INFORMATIVE DIGEST

The Board proposes to amend Sections 1391.1, 1391.2, 1391.5 - 1391.12 and 1392.1 of Title 16 of the California Code of Regulations. These changes are to conform to statutory changes to Business and Professions Code section 2913, as enacted by SB 1193 (Chapter 484, Statutes of 2016).

The provisions within current regulations are contradictory to the new provisions in Section 2913 of the Business and Profession Code, which allow psychological assistants to apply for and renew annually one consolidated registration with the Board, independent from their supervisor(s) or employer(s). These changes do not remove the requirement for supervision of the psychological assistant and maintains a license relationship with the supervisor, which ensures that the Board can continue to monitor the number of psychological assistants a Psychologist supervises, and verify that the psychological assistant is not practicing independently. Current regulations mandate that every psychological assistant obtain a separate registration under each of their supervisors or employers.

Additional changes also place the onus of annual reporting on the registered psychological assistant instead of the supervisor or the employer. Currently, the employer notifies the Board of a termination of a psychological assistant registration or a change of address. The Proposed regulation will require the psychological assistant to notify the Board of any supervisor or location changes. This package will also remove redundancy relating to who pays the psychological registration fee, as this is already specified in statute, and makes confirming changes to language that provide clarity and consistency with other regulatory provisions.

A. Objectives/Anticipated Benefits of Proposal

The anticipated benefits include a more streamlined administrative process for psychological assistant applications and renewals, as staff will no longer be required to issue and renew multiple registration numbers because each psychological assistant will now have only one (1) registration number. Although each psychological assistant will have their own registration number, they will maintain appropriate reporting and supervision requirements, as they will continue to be required to declare all supervisors and employers to the Board. Additionally, the removal of the limitation for who can supervise and employ a psychological assistant as amended in SB 1193, and the requirement for a single registration as stated in the regulation language, increases the portability of the psychological assistant registration.

B. Consistency and Compatibility with Existing State Regulations

During the process of developing these regulations and amendments, the Board has conducted a search of similar regulations on this topic and has concluded that these regulations are neither inconsistent nor incompatible with existing state regulations.

FISCAL IMPACT ESTIMATES

Fiscal Impact on Public Agencies Including Costs or Savings to State Agencies or Costs/Savings in Federal Funding to the State: Minor and absorbable

Nondiscretionary Costs/Savings to Local Agencies: None

Local Mandate: None

Cost to any local agency or school district which must be reimbursed in accordance with Government Code Sections 17500 – 17630: None

Business Impact:

The Board has made an initial determination that the proposed regulatory action would have no significant statewide adverse economic impact directly affecting business, including the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses in other states.

The following studies/relevant data were relied upon in making the above determination:

- None

Cost Impact on Representative Private Person or Business:

The Board is not aware of any cost impacts that a representative private person or business would necessarily incur in reasonable compliance with the proposed action.

Effect on Housing Costs:

None

EFFECT ON SMALL BUSINESS

The Board has determined that the proposed regulations would not affect small businesses, as it does not increase reporting or administrative burdens on small private practices.

RESULTS OF ECONOMIC IMPACT ASSESSMENT/ANALYSIS:

Impact on Jobs/Businesses:

The Board has determined that this regulatory proposal will not have any impact on the creation of jobs, new businesses, the elimination of jobs, existing businesses, or the expansion of businesses in the State of California.

Benefits of Regulation:

The Board has determined that this regulatory proposal will benefit the health and welfare of California residents, worker safety, and the state's environment because increased portability of registration for psychological assistants removes administrative burdens allowing psychological assistants to better access employment opportunities that provide psychological services to vulnerable communities in California.

CONSIDERATION OF ALTERNATIVES

The Board must determine that no reasonable alternative it considered to the regulation or that has otherwise been identified and brought to its attention would be more effective in carrying out the purpose for which the action is proposed, would be as effective and less burdensome to affected private persons than the proposal described in this Notice, or would be more cost effective to affected private persons and equally effective in implementing the statutory policy or other provision of law.

Any interested person may present statements or arguments orally or in writing relevant to the above determinations at the above-mentioned hearing.

INITIAL STATEMENT OF REASONS

HEARING DATE: January 17, 2017

Subject Matter of Proposed Regulations: Psychological Assistant Registration

Section(s) Affected: Title 16, California Code of Regulations Sections 1391.1-1391.12 and 1392.1

Specific Purpose of each adoption, amendment, or repeal:

On September 22, 2016, Governor Brown signed SB 1193 (Hill) (Chapter 484, Statutes of 2016). This bill makes changes to the psychological assistant registration classification, which necessitates a regulatory change.

SB 1193 (Hill) makes changes to section 2913 of the Business and Professions Code. The changes to the introductory text of 2913 remove language that discusses where employment is permitted as a psychological assistant. Prior to this change the language limited the settings where a psychological assistant was able to work. Changes to Section 2913(a), adds in specific language specifying that a psychological assistant will register themselves with the Board of Psychology, and will renew this registration annually. Prior to this change, this section named the supervisor as the person responsible for submitting and renewing the registration. The removal and renumbering of Section 2913(d) removes language which specified that the supervisor or employment site was required to submit the application for the psychological assistant, and renew this registration annually. Section 2913(c)(2) replaces the former Section (d)(2) and removes language which limits how many psychological assistants employment sites other than licensed psychologists and or psychiatrists may have. Previously, this language was necessary as the introductory text mandated who could employ a psychological assistant. Section 2913(e) was renumbered to be Section 2913(d). These changes will be effective January 1, 2017.

Current statutory and regulatory language requires a supervisor or approved corporation/clinic to employ a psychological assistant, and to submit an application to the Board for each psychological assistant they employ. This registration is renewed annually. The result of this language is that psychological assistants are registered to their supervisor or employer through their registration with the Board. If a psychological assistant chooses to have multiple supervisors/employers, registration with the Board is required for each place of employment.

One purpose of the proposed regulatory language is to conform to statutory changes and allow the psychological assistants to register themselves to the Board of Psychology, and allow that single registration to be renewed annually. This registration will be independent from their supervisor(s) or employer(s).

Another purpose of the proposed regulatory language is to remove redundancy relating to who pays the psychological assistant registration fee, as this is already specified in statute.

The problem to be addressed:

Current regulations require each employer of a psychological assistant to apply for and renew the registration for each psychological assistant they employ. Additionally, statutory limitations further restrict the types of employers who could employ a psychological assistant. Combined, these issues were administratively burdensome to all parties without enhancing accountability for psychological assistants during the completion of their required hours of supervised professional experience.

In addition, both statute and regulations dictate who is responsible for the psychological assistant registration fee. This is problematic as duplicative language increases the potential for conflicting statutory and regulatory requirements due to the dual reference.

Anticipated Benefits:

The anticipated benefits include a more streamlined administrative process for psychological assistant applications and renewals, as staff will no longer be required to issue and renew multiple registration numbers because each psychological assistant will now have only one (1) registration number. Although each psychological assistant will have their own registration number, they will maintain appropriate reporting and supervision requirements, as they will still be required to notify the board about all supervisors and employers. Additionally, the removal of the limitation for who can employ a psychological assistant increases the portability of a registration as a psychological assistant and may enhance access to psychological services in vulnerable communities.

Factual Basis Rationale

Amendments to § 1391.1 change the party responsible for submitting the application for a psychological assistant from the psychological assistant's employer to the psychological assistant applicant. This change is necessary to conform to statutory changes to Business and Professions Code (B&P) section 2913, as enacted by SB 1193 (Chapter 484, Statutes of 2016).

Amendments to § 1391.2 make grammatical changes for clarity by changing the reference to the withdrawal of an application for failure to respond the Board's request for information from plural to singular since there will only be one registration for each psychological assistant.

Amendments to §1391.5 remove language referring to organizations that can employ a psychological assistant as referred to in B&P section 2913, since the amendments to B&P section 2913 no longer reference who can employ a psychological assistant. Additional changes remove references to the registration of a psychological assistant to a supervisor, and remove limitations for which psychological assistants are allowed to receive supervision by a delegated supervisor, since the limitation on who can provide supervision was removed from B&P section 2913. This change is necessary to conform to statutory changes to Business and Professions Code (B&P) section 2913, as enacted by SB 1193 (Chapter 484, Statutes of 2016).

Amendments to § 1391.6 add language to specify that a supervisor must possess training and experience in the areas they will supervise. It also changes the requirement from the supervisor notifying the patient that the psychological assistant is unlicensed and under supervision to ensuring that the patient is notified of this change. This section also ensures that the supervisor has access to the client or patients chart.

Amendments to § 1391.8 removes language stating supervisors and employers cannot charge the psychological assistant for supervision, and adds language specifying that the psychological assistant cannot pay a fee for supervision. This change is necessary as the onus for the registration will now be with the psychological assistant, and they will be under supervision regardless of their employment status.

Amendments to § 1391.10 redefine the requirement for and content of the annual update, which is now required to be completed by the psychological assistant rather than the supervisor. Additional language was added to require the psychological assistant to disclose the name and license number for all of their primary supervisors. This is necessary as the Board will no longer be requiring each supervisor to register their psychological assistant.

Amendments to § 1391.11 remove the requirement that supervisors notify the Board in cases of termination. The proposed language would mandate that the psychological assistant notify the Board of any changes to his or her supervisor(s) or location where services are provided, and upon a change in supervisors, mandates that a new supervision agreement be completed when a psychological assistant is accruing supervised professional experience.

Amendments to §1391.12 remove the requirement for each employer to renew psychological assistant registrations, and instead requires the renewal to be completed by the psychological assistant.

Amendments to §1392.1 removes the requirement for the psychological assistant application fee to be paid by the supervisor since this is already specified in statute.

Underlying Data

Licensing Committee Meeting Minutes from Monday, September 19, 2016.

Business Impact

This regulation will not have a significant adverse economic impact on businesses. This initial determination is based upon the fact that changes to these regulatory sections would impact businesses positively because it shifts the responsibility for annual reporting requirements to the psychological assistant and away from the business employing them.

Economic Impact Assessment

This regulatory proposal will have the following affects:

- It will not create or eliminate jobs within the State of California because the proposed regulatory changes do not change the requirement for supervision of psychological assistants, only how many registrations are required.
- It will not create new business or eliminate existing businesses within the State of California because the proposal relates to the amount of registrations each psychological assistant is required to obtain with the Board.
- It will not affect the expansion of businesses currently doing business within the State of California because the proposal relates to the amount of registrations each psychological assistant is required to obtain with the Board.
- This regulatory proposal benefits the health and welfare of California residents, because it does not remove the supervision requirements for psychological assistants and allows enhanced portability of the psychological assistant registration to multiple supervisors and/or employers.
- This regulatory proposal does not affect worker safety because the proposal relates to the amount of registrations each psychological assistant is required to obtain with the Board.
- This regulatory proposal benefits the state's environment because it reduces the amount of duplicative registration applications and renewals mailed to and from the Board.

Specific Technologies or Equipment

This regulation does not mandate the use of specific technologies or equipment.

Consideration of Alternatives

No reasonable alternative to the regulatory proposal would be either more effective in carrying out the purpose for which the action is proposed or would be as effective or less burdensome to affected private persons and equally effective in achieving the purposes of the regulations in a manner that ensures full compliance with the law being implemented or made specific.

Set forth below are the alternatives which were considered and the reasons each alternative was rejected:

- Not adopt the amendments. This alternative was rejected because this regulatory proposal will conform to statutory changes to Business and Professions Code section 2913, as enacted by SB 1193 (Chapter 484, Statutes of 2016).
